Grocery Department.

There are many people in this city who are not patrons of this department in our stores. It is no doubt because we rarely make mention of it and the prices and goods sold here. It will surprise the many who are not customers to hear that we distribute more groceries than three of the largest retail groceries in this city. The reason is very easy to find, large purchases give us the inside on prices. THE BEST GOODS AT THE LOWEST PRICES. Many people have the impression that because of the low prices we make (often lower than the wholesale houses), that they are necessarily of inferior quality.

The dealer who buys in small quantities at outside prices and puts a heavy profit on must defend himself by crying inferior goods. It does not follow because our prices are lower than others ask, that the goods are of a poorer class. Every one is protected in the quality in this store; our goods are open for inspection, we invite it.

We challenge a comparison of QUALITY, WEIGHT and PRICES with the best stores in the city, and furthermore, any goods not entirely satisfactory can be returned. People's tastes differ what pleases one may not please some one else.

ATHLETES TO MEET.

Will Try to Win Honors from Oxford and Cambridge.

Yale and Harvard Students Anxious to Wipe Out Defeat at Hands of English Students in 1899-1900.

Yale and Harvard will meet Oxford and Cambridge on track and field again, and the athletes of the American universities will try to wipe out the defeat they received at the hands of the English students in the summer of 1899.

Preliminary arrangements have been for some time in the hands of prominent alumni of all four universities, and are now well advanced, but not one word will any of the men who are negotiating with the Englishmen say.

Great secrecy has been maintained by all who are in any way connected with the proposed meeting, but it has been ascertained that negotiations were pending, and that E. J. Wendel, a prominent and enthusiastic Harvard alumnus, to a certain extent represented his alma mater in the matter.

Ever since the two American college teams of runners, jumpers and weight-putters crossed the Atlantic in 1899 and were beaten by the English collegians by one point, Harvard and Yale alumni have been striving to get the English teams to meet the Americans at home. The plan is to have Oxford and Cambridge pay a visit here, and have the contests come off on neutral grounds, preferably Manhattan field, New York.

The English athletes are willing to come, and might have been here during the past summer if the Americans could have come to some agreement about the place of meeting. Harvard wanted Cambridge. Yale insisted upon New Haven. Harvard wanted one date, Yale another. While they were trying to agree the British teams were depleted by some of their best men going to South Africa to fight the Boers.

Now, however, men have become interested in the controversy between Yale and Harvard that are more interested in the games themselves than in the place or date of holding them, and there is every reason to believe that the British collegians will be seen on an American field next summer.

NEW METHOD OF TRACTION.

Hungarian Invention That Promises to Revolutionize Motive Power.

It was supposed until the last moment that an American concern would secure the contract for equipping the old underground system of London with electric traction. There were nine tenders. The American bidders were the lowest, except Gans & Co., of Buda-Pesth. The bid of this company was not very much below that of all others, but proposed a system entirely novel, which, if their claims are substantiated, will revolutionize the motive power of the world and supplant all others. The directors were astonished, and deferred the awarding of the contract. They will send a committee and experts to Buda-Pesth to examine into the matter. Discussing this proposition, the Engineer, a newspaper, says: "We are not at liberty to give detailed information. We can say, however, that if the statements are substantiated, Gans & Co. are as far ahead of the American traction practice as the Americans tell us they are ahead of the British. In a word, the new system will do for full-sized railways what hitherto has been possible for tramways only.

"It is rumored that the American bidders are determined to get the contract, and it is a suggestive fact that underground shares are being heavily bought on orders from the United States. This may be a coincidence, but the statement is not inconsistent with the practice of trusts, which endeavor to control matters on the other side of the Atlantic."

SILK WILL BE HIGH.

Consul at Coburg States That Disturbances in China Seriously Affect Silk and Tea Trade.

The consequences of the disturbances in China are being seriously felt in the silk and tea trades, says Consul Hughes, at Coburg, Germany, in a communication to the state department. While the estimated Chinese production of silk for last year is estimated at 9,920,700 pounds, which is by no means a bad result in itself, yet the uncertain conditions of business make it rather risky to import Chinese goods. This has caused a demand of Syrian silk goods. Unfortunately, the present silk crop in Turkey is not very good, so that a rise of prices is probable. The tea trade, states Mr. Hughes, is in a similar position. Insurance companies do not like to run the risks and refuse to insure Chinese goods while banks have ceased to advance money on this kind of merchandise. The Ceylon tea plantations, concludes the consul, will benefit by these conditions.

What He Should Have Said.

If Mr. Hopkinson Smith had contented himself, remarks the Chicago Tribune, with merely asserting that the average "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company is an "appalling, awful and criminal mistake," it would have been different.

OWES LIFE TO MISS WILSON.

London Wonders If Count Mensdorf Will Wed His Beautiful Rescuer.

People are asking who was the diplomat Miss Muriel Wilson rescued on the train going down to Chatsworth, in England. He is none other than Count Mensdorf, London's most select young man, first secretary of the Austrian embassy and a cousin of the queen.

Miss Muriel, who is beautiful, talented and the best amateur actress of the day, has refused endless offers of marriage, among others one from the present duke of Marlborough, to whom she replied when he made his offer: "I have not got enough money for you. Blenheim needs you to marry a rich heiress."

Miss Muriel is tall and athletic and indulges in fencing and Norwegian exercises, which are so fashionable in society just now. Count Mensdorf is small and light. She was standing on the train platform when Count Mensdorf made a well-nigh fatal rush. In a moment the alert girl saw the step he had made and seized him by the collar and, with the ease of a trained amazon, hauled him up from between the train and the platform. "Will they marry?" people ask.

GIRLS SOLD AT AUCTION.

Five Chinese Maidens Disposed Of to Highest Bidder in San Francisco.

Five Chinese slave girls were sold at public auction in San Francisco's Chinatown the other day, as publicly as though they had been in Canton, where such human slavery is a recognized institution. The girls were the property of Gong Gow, an old Chinaman who has kept for years one of the disreputable dens in Chinatown. He wanted to go back to China, so he advertised the furniture and chattels of his establishment for sale at auction.

When the sale began there was a large crowd. The girls were exhibited and the auctioneer enumerated their good points. They stood stolidly by, as they were used to such proceedings, having been sold in Canton before they were brought here. They fetched fancy prices, as the restriction act is so rigidly enforced now that it is difficult to get pretty Chinese girls into the country.

They sold at from $1,700 to $2,500 each, and they were at once removed to the quarters of their new owners, who will begin to draw large revenue from their earnings.

MARKED COIN COMES BACK.

Returns After Twenty-Five Years of Wandering to the Original Owner.

Twenty-five years ago, while working in the blacksmith shop of J. W. Shetter, at Stoughton, Wis., Harvey Hawman, former chief of police of Sioux City, stamped the letters "J. W. S." his employer's initials, on a half-dollar. This week that same coin, without any doubt, was handed to him over the counter of his fish market in Sioux City, Ia. The coin had been worn smooth by constant handling during the quarter of a century. In that period of time it had perhaps jingled in the pockets of thousands of persons and may have traveled miles across the country and back, only to land finally in the hands of the man who had marked it with letters of an unmistakable character. Never was a man more completely surprised than was Mr. Hawman when he saw the marked coin. In spite of the fact that he had not thought of it since he last saw it, he recognized it at once, and his mind flashed back over the quarter of a century. He proposes to keep it now.

PLANT PECANS.

Agricultural Department Will Seek to Encourage the Industry Among Farmers.

A collection of 15 varieties of pecans has just been made by the director of plant industry of the agricultural department, with a view to encouraging the growth of these nuts more generally. Now almost our entire production of pecans comes from Louisiana and Texas, and from these fields the director has got his finest specimens.

It is the intention to propagate a number of the young plants, both by nut planting and obtaining slips or sprouts from the southern territory which is most prolific and during the next year distribute them in parts of the country where it is thought they may be grown.

It is the opinion of the director of plant industry that almost any nut known to commerce may be cultivated in some part of our variable climate, and it is his intention to follow this experiment with others.

Education in the United States. There are 244,327 schoolhouses, dormitories and other buildings in the United States devoted to education, and they are valued at $524,689,255. There are 415,660 teachers—131,793 men and 283,867 women. In 1899 the people of the United States spent $197,281,603 to educate their children, which is $2.67 per capita of population and $3.20 per capita of children of the school age.

Cheerful Confidence Here.

There is a marked contrast between the outlook in English and American trade, says the New York Sun. In the one case there is nothing but gloomy apprehension, while in the other there is cheerful confidence.

Two Fire Alarms Yesterday.

A fire started in a house belonging to Mr. Lane, on Charles street about half past seven yesterday morning. Both departments responded and the blaze, which was a small one that had caught from the grate, was put out with the extinguishers. No serious damage resulted.

The second scare occurred in the afternoon when a fire, in the house occupied by Mr. Siler at 109 Fourth street, burnt out.

The East and West side were on hand but there was no occasion to throw any water.

Melodrama will hold the boards at the Auditorium next Tuesday night, Feb. 19th. The offering will be Barney Gilmore and his company in the up-to-date sensational melodrama "Kidnaped in New York." The plot of the piece is founded on actual happenings. The occurrence which suggested the play was the abduction of Baby Marion Clark from Central Park, New York City, a little over a year ago. The piece is said to be interesting and the cast presenting it is claimed to be a thoroughly competent one. Seats on sale at Beagle and Lytle's Drug Store tomorrow.

M. G. SELPEL Mgr.

Ruhlin-Martin Here Saturday Night.

Despite the fact that the card arranged for tomorrow night at the Auditorium is the greatest ever offered here, the management of the same have decided to charge but popular prices, viz: 50c 75c and $1.00. Considering the magnitude of the program arranged the prices are very reasonable. Ruhlin and Denver Ed. Martin will box four rounds the same as they do daily at their training quarters. Reports from there say that there is more action, hitting, blocking, etc., crowded in those four rounds than you see in a fight. Ruhlin and Martin are at it all the time and the spectators are given a rare treat when the two go through their work. Besides these four rounds, including an illustration of various blows and how to evade them, there is to be a 15 round contest between Andy Bezenah and Kid McFadden, of Chicago. These two were practically matched in Chicago but owing to the discontinuation of boxing in the Windy City the management here secured the match in conjunction with the Ruhlin-Martin exhibition. Billy Madden will act as referee, and a great contest can be looked for. There will also be other athletic sports. Sale of seats are now on at Gates' Book Store.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.
